We are looking for a fantastic story about the adventures of a town mayor of Congleton and will be no more than 700 words but more than 600 words. Your story can be about absolutely anything, it can be mythical, mystical, thriller, funny, historic, present day as long as it involves a Town Mayor.

Entries may be typed or handwritten and the competition will run from the 24th January, until the 9th April (after Easter), with the winners being announced at the 700 Mayor's Charity Sprint Triathlon Event on Sunday 22nd April in Congleton Park. The winners will be notified beforehand.

There is a minimum £1 entry fee which will go towards the Town Mayor's charities, Visyon, Friends for Leisure and New Life Church.

Closing date for entries is 5pm on Monday 9th April 2018. Completed forms and a hard copy of the story must be handed in to staff at Congleton Library.
